Dr. McIlwaine Prepares List of Hampden-Sidney Graduates
High in Teaching Profession.

DISTINGUISHED NAMES GIVEN

College Maintains High Eminence—It Has Held Since Its Foundation.

Dr. Richard McIlwaine, president of Hampden-Sidney College, has prepared for publication a list of graduates of the college who have taken a high place in the educational work of the country. It is stated in the introduction of the article that its purpose is to show by a bare enumeration of the names that the historic eminence of the college has been maintained. It is feared that some names have been omitted inadvertently, in which case regret for the omission is expressed.

The list follows:
University of Virginia, Professor W. M. Thornton, A. M., LL. D. (Applied Mathematics).
Washington and Lee University, President George H. Denny, A. M., Ph. D. (U. Va.), LL. D.

Curse OF DRUNKENNESS

WHISKEY AND BEER HABITS CURED TO STAY CURED BY White Ribbon Remedy

No taste. No odor. Can be given in glass of water, tea or coffee, or food without patient's knowledge.

MRS. A. M. TOWNSEND,
For Years Secretary of a Woman's Christian Temperance Union. Her White Ribbon Remedy Has Brought Joy and Gladdened to Thousands of Homes.
By using my White Ribbon Remedy any drunkard or anyone who is a victim of drunkenness can be cured. Anyone can give it without the drunkard's ever knowing it.
White Ribbon Remedy does its work so swiftly
and surely that while the devoted wife, sister, mother or daughter looks on the drunkard is cured even against his will. I advise every person who has been troubled by a drunkard
to the drink evil to give them White Ribbon Remedy at once. It has made many thousands of permanent cures and in addition restores the victim to normal health, and in the process, increases the wife's power and determination to resist temptation.
The Only Remedy for Drunkenness Insured by Members of W. C. T. U.

Mrs. Anna Moore, Press Superintendent of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, Los Angeles, California, writes: "I have tested White Ribbon Remedy on very obstinate drunkards and the cures have been many. In most cases the remedy was given without the patient's knowledge. I cheerfully recommend and endorse White Ribbon Remedy, and advise any woman to give it. It is a relative of a feeling drunkardness. Members of our Union are enabled to find a practical and economical attainment which can be recommended as safe, sure, secretly and easily given."

Sold by druggists everywhere or by mail. Price, 50c and $1.00.
Bottle free by writing or calling on

SOME INTERESTING FIGURES ON THE GETTYSBURG FIGHT

Senator Daniel, in his very interesting letter on the battle of Gettysburg, printed in the Confederate column to-day, refers to two tables prepared by Chief Ainsworth, of the Record and Pension Office, bearing on this subject. These tables, which should also have appeared on the Confederate Page, are as follows:

A tabulated statement accompanying Longstreet's report (Official Records, Series I, Vol. xxi, Part II, p. 363), shows the killed as follows: Garnett's Brigade, 78; Armistead's Brigade, 88; Kemper's Brigade, 88. For an explanation of the discrepancies existing between the various reports, see Official Records, Series I, Vol. xxvii, Part II, p. 339.

DANIEL'S PLEA FOR HIS BILL

Travel, visitation, search and advertisement will be necessary to collect many of the rolls and other papers that are as yet extant in the hands of societies and individuals. When recently in the Library of the State, I found Mr. Nimmo, an ex-soldier and a highly competent clerk, picking out of old bundles of papers the few rolls of volunteer and militia companies that could be found here and there. The librarian, Mr. Kennedy, and Mr. Nimmo also, informed me that in the garret of the Capitol there are many piles of old papers, in which, perhaps, other rolls may be found. These papers should be sifted out, and whatever is of permanent value in them should be rescued. Mr. Kennedy very kindly gave me a list of such rolls as he had found, and I enclose it (thankful to him) that you may perceive its meagreness. Our Revolutionary records have been neglected. Who can tell anything of the Virginia division that under Governor Nelson stood in the trenches of Yorktown when Washington struck the final blow? Our attention to these records has led to the writing of false history in other States and to the making of false comparisons between the contributions to the Army of the Revolution and our own.

REPEATING OF HISTORY.

History is but repeating itself when nowadays our State, which made such generous contribution of men to the Confederate army, has, through her misfortunes, incurred similar and equally untrue disparagements of her immortal forces as of old. It is a work of duty and a work of progress that comes for our hands to do. It is also a work of burden, to distress, to engage and to exert. Our great tribulations are over. When the Federal government asks us "to do full credit to the Confederate soldier" by bringing forth his name, we cannot stand mute and helpless. Whatever be the cost, the most sluggish blood should tingle and the very miser's purse should open. The $5,000 asked for as a present appropriation is little, compared to the nature of the work, and the paramount duty to perform it. It has priority of claim over any similar work, but when it is accomplished as far as may be, we may find the instrumentality employed useful in gathering as far as possible the records of other wars, to save them, too,

THE NEGRO MINSTRELS.

Kerns' negro minstrels gave two performances at the Academy yesterday. Members of their race packed the gallery until there wasn't an inch of space unoccupied.

The performance delighted the colored brethren to that extent that they shook the rafters with their applause.

There was the usual minstrel first part, with the exception that some of the jokes were more ancient than those heard in the past few years. Kerns was down for the last number in the first part, and sang and danced in a fashion that made black faces in the gallery smile from ear to ear.
